

THE BIBLE IS NOT THE ONLY WORD OF GOD!

OUR TIME ON EARTH IS JUST ABOUT UP – WE NEED GOD’S TRUTH NOW HEAR HOW REAL HOPE GOES BEYOND THE BIBLE

JESUS REVEALS THE TRUTH OF GOD IN THIS GUIDE BOOK:

ONE GOD ONE WORD: The TRUTH About the KNOWLEDGE and WORSHIP of GOD

The True Word Of God As It Was Revealed To His Servants Over The Ages, And A Complete Dialogue Of Words Spoken By Jesus, Which Are Not Contained In The Bible, Are Captured In This God Inspired Book.

To Order Visit: <http://www.OneGodOneWord.com>
or Order At: <http://www.trafford.com>
or Order At: Amazon.com

Jesus Spoke Many Words That Are Critical To The Salvation Of Mankind, Words That Are Today Being Misinterpreted. This Book Contains The Truth About Jesus’ Words And About The Old Testament Prophecies. This Is A Book Of Darkness And A Book Of Light. It Contains The Truths That Must Be Known In These End Times, In Order To Achieve Peace And Life Amidst The Chaos And Death That Will Continue to Befall America And The World.

About the Book

This Book shares the true Knowledge of God. It gives the facts of Creation, beginning with the revealing of God Himself, through the revealing of the spirit beings, to the creation of man. It reveals the true methods of worshiping God in this life, as well as revealing the coming Judgments of God on the heavens and on the earth, and it reveals the details of the Hereafter, including Heaven and hell. The Oneness of God and the Oneness of religion among all people is stressed to the believers of God, just as He has revealed it to His servants throughout the ages.

Most of the Knowledge in this Book comes from Jesus himself, as this Book contains more of Jesus’ spoken words than any other documentary on Jesus. The Bible contains only a fraction of Jesus’ Message. The details of God’s Truth as It exists in Judaism, in Hinduism, in Buddhism, and in Islam are also revealed. The rest of the Knowledge in this Book was revealed to the prophets of God, as documented in the Word of God, and this is the prophesied Book that must be opened in the End Times for the saving of misled souls (Isa. 30:8,52:7, Dan. 12:4,9, Hab. 2:14, Rev. 10:10,11). The defects of Christianity are revealed, as well as the errors concerning the crucifixion, the resurrection, and the Passion of the Christ. This Book is prepared as a Warning to unbelievers and as a Guide and beacon of Hope to those desiring Eternal Life.

About the Author

Clarence G. Wilson was born in the southeastern part of the United States, in the middle of the twentieth century. Yes, Clarence was born a 'baby boomer' in the Bible Belt. From a very young age Clarence has had a curiosity and a fascination about God and Jesus, and about the Creation that we live in. Clarence was raised in a Baptist church with some exposure to the Methodist church. The thing that fascinated him most about God from his childhood was the faith that his mother had in Him, and the way she handled and got through all circumstances, especially adverse ones, with that faith. Clarence knew at that early age that the love and faith that his mother demonstrated were what he would need throughout his life, since Clarence had to learn about some of the struggles of life at an age younger than most people in America would experience such things. The love of Jesus and the faith in God that his mother had, and demonstrated, apparently have been passed on to him, because that same love and faith that Clarence saw in her, now help him to endure life's adverse situations, as he gives God all the praise for bringing him through all situations and for giving him all of the moments of peace amidst all of life's challenges. Clarence could not imagine trying to get through life without God as the Head and Protector. Clarence has seen too much evidence of the helping Hand of God in his life for him not to acknowledge, to love, and to have all Faith, in Him.

With a high mechanical aptitude, Clarence pursued a career in engineering. He worked in that field for many years, as he and his wife raised three children. During that time Clarence could constantly see God in every aspect of his life and his work. Clarence could not separate God's presence from the science and the physics present in the objects and systems associated with the various projects of his work involvement. Nor could he separate God's presence in the circumstances involved in his execution of his various tasks and assignments. With his career allowing him to meet a broad cross section of people over the years, Clarence had many discussions and study sessions on religion with many people, many from other religions. Upon learning more about other religions, and upon seeing how dedicated others were (besides Christians) to their serving of one God, in 1988 God gave him the Revelation to write this Book, for aiding in the peace for mankind.

Excerpts

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE

The purpose of this book is to share with others the True Knowledge about: God, the Word of God, Creation, and the Judgment. There is much confusion in the world today about the way God is worshiped by other cultures, mainly due to strife and indifferences that exist among the different religions of those cultures, all of whose backgrounds are different. Many of these groups take great efforts to try to persuade peoples of other cultures to adopt their religion, because they think that they have the 'real' religion. In the true worship of God the strife and animosity that exist among religious groups would not exist, because when a soul knows the True God, he is automatically in harmony with any other soul who knows the True God. There is but one Supreme God, or Power, and all of the major religions of the world, including most other minor religions, as well as many people, who do not practice an organized religion, recognize this fact. The Word, or Knowledge, of God as understood by his servants when it was revealed during their times, still exists today. All of the knowledge of God is not present in any one holy or religious book. The knowledge was revealed over a span of thousands of years and it was revealed in different locations of the world to different peoples. God's Word is One and it is Eternal. God has not changed over the ages and the messages given to His servants over the ages have not changed in character. The messages that were received of a people from God at a given time and place were catered to the cultures and circumstances of the people, although in these messages God's character and overall theme does not change.

The Truth about God and man, as God has revealed it unto His servants, is revealed. Light is shed on the areas of confusion that causes strife among religious groups, and the hope is that the reading of this book will awaken the spirits of thinking men and women to use their God given power of reasoning (only given to humans) to realize the deceptions that Satan has placed in the world to prevent them from receiving the peace and freedom that God has in store for all souls who will heed to his Eternal Word.

CHAPTER 3 THE WORD OF GOD

From my studying of God's Word throughout the years, I have noticed something very interesting and surprising in the Scriptures and materials that contain the True Word of God. I have noticed that these Scriptures, regardless as to which religion adheres to them, actually compliment each other. In other words, in all of the material listed in this section, there is a common link connecting them all; that link is the Character and Love of God. I have found that if a person truly is seeking the understanding and knowledge of God and if that person will enter into the studying of God's word with an open mind and with an open heart, his goal can be achieved. Jesus talked about this humble approach to salvation when he said: "Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.” – Matt. 18:3. Coupled with that desire, a sense of willing for God’s Will to be done and a sense of caring for others must be present in the individual to assure that he will understand the doctrine that is presented. Jesus illustrated this when he continued to elude the Pharisees with the parables he spoke, when they could not understand, because they did not have the desire to do God’s will.

I realize that most people are comfortable or complacent in their religious practices and that they have no desire to read or to understand some other religious group’s doctrine, it is in these practices where grave errors are made. God’s Word was revealed over a span of thousands of years and it was revealed in different locations of the world, in different circumstances, to different peoples. These things alone have affected the tempo for what messages God revealed to a certain people by their God inspired prophet or servant, and at what locations these instructions occurred.

Being lead by the Spirit of God, it is my desire to conform as Jesus said: “Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God” – Matt. 4:4, Luke 4:4, that has compelled me to cross the doctoral boundaries of my Christian upbringing to explore these religious doctrines of other cultures. I understand from the knowledge that I have obtained that God wants people of all nations to do his will and that he has given instructions to other people as well as to the Jews, by sending His prophets and servants over the ages to various locations where they were needed, all bearing His Word.

Many religious doctrines or truthful testimonies have been altered over the ages, but God has allowed the Truth to live on in spite of Satan’s activities to try to destroy the Truth. Although some of the holy books or references discussed in this section have been tainted of man, there is still truth to be found in them, but it needs to be extracted from information that may have some contamination in it. The Spirit of God that resides in each of us must be allowed to guide our thoughts and understanding in our reading of these and of any doctrine of the word of God.

CHAPTER 6 THE DECEPTIONS ABOUT JESUS

JESUS WAS A MORTAL MAN

Barnabas records

“Then Jesus, having lifted his hand in token of silence, said: ‘Verily ye have erred greatly, O Israelites, in calling me, a man, your God. And I fear that God may for this give heavy plague upon the holy city, handing it over in servitude to strangers. O a thousand times accursed Satan, that hath moved you to this!’

And having said this, Jesus smote his face with both his hands, whereupon arose such a noise of weeping that none could hear what Jesus was saying. Whereupon once more he lifted up his hand in token of silence, and the people being quieted from their weeping, he spake once more: ‘I confess before heaven, and I call to witness everything that dwelleth upon the earth, that I am a stranger to all that ye have said: seeing that I am man, born of mortal woman, subject to the judgment of God, suffering the miseries of eating and sleeping, of cold and heat, like other men. Wherefore when God shall come to judge, my words like a sword shall pierce each one (of them) that believe me to be more than man.” – GB: 93.

“Jesus said again: ‘I confess before heaven, and call to witness everything that dwelleth upon the earth, that I am a stranger to all that men have said of me, to wit, that I am more than man. For I am a man, born of a woman, subject to the judgment of God; that live here like as other men, subject to the common miseries. As God liveth, in whose presence my soul standeth, thou hast greatly sinned, O priest, in saying what thou hast said. May it please God that there come not upon the holy city great vengeance for this sin.’” – GB: 94.

“Then Jesus, having lifted up his hands, said: ‘Lord our God, this is my faith wherewith I shall come to thy judgment; in testimony against every one that shall believe the contrary. And turning himself towards the people, he said: ‘Repent, for from all that of which the priest hath said that it is written in the book of Moses, the covenant of God for ever, ye may perceive your sin; for that I am a visible man and a morsel of clay that walketh upon the earth, mortal as are other men. And I have had a beginning, and shall have an end, and (am) such that I cannot create a fly over again.’” GB: 95.

The last effort by Satan and the powers of darkness is to launch a mass spreading of this false doctrine before the Hour is up, and the Judgment is upon us, as they know that their time of deception is almost over. The movie: The Passion of the Christ is one of these final acts of Satan as he tries to win as many souls from God as he can before that great Day of destruction is suddenly upon us. The message in this movie is Anti-Christ, as it spreads a most misleading message about the Truth, as we have been shown that it was not Jesus that was crucified, but Judas instead.

The Messiah prophesied this act of misrepresenting Jesus, as he revealed:

“And (Jesus) shall be a Sign (for the coming of) the Hour (of Judgment): therefore have no doubt about the (Hour), but follow ye Me: this is a Straight Way.” – QUR: XLIII.61.

CHAPTER 7 OTHER DECEPTIONS IN THE BIBLE

The comments about the Truth in this chapter also apply to the Jewish scriptures, as well as pertaining to all other doctrines and theologies that reveal God’s Word, since God’s Truth is eternal and universal.

ABOUT MAN

As it has been discussed in chapter 5: ABOUT CREATION, it is evident that the first man and first woman to be created, which was eons ago (Gen. 1:26-30), was not the Adam and Eve being discussed in Gen. Chapters 3 through 5, who were created later, only about six thousand years ago.

Archeological evidence shows that man's form has been around many thousands of years earlier than the six thousand years of history, erroneously extracted by many people from Biblical accounts.

MULTIPLE CREATORS

When we talk about God in Creation, in actuality we are talking about multiple spiritual beings, since all beings of Creation (seen and unseen) are in God, and since from the same Spirit came all created and formed life. All life though not created by the First Father, owes its existence and its ability to function to the First Father. Man, especially owes God more than any other life on earth does, because of the breath of God's Spirit that He has breathed into man, giving each man a chance for eternal life. All of the immortal beings of The 'Assembly' (The Heavenly Host) agree as one, and are in the First Father, who is the Great Light. But outside of the upper heavenly realm are the lower levels of heaven (the earth included), where spiritual beings, who have not seen the upper levels, were involved in some creating activities, including the creation of man. So all of the aforementioned entities have some involvement in man's creation, and/or, in his life.

The creation of humans was accomplished (in secret) with the input of multiple spiritual beings (beings created by or in conjunction with the Holy Spirit), and through the creative ability of the Holy Spirit.

As spoken through Krishna, God states

"The seven great RISHIS (spiritual influences of Creation), the ancient four and also the MANUS (formulators of laws of behavior), possessed of powers like Me, were born of (My) mind; from these are these creatures in the world (originated and sustained)." – GIT X/6.

The Bible supports this plurality of creators of man

"And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth." – Gen. 1:26.

"The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life." – Job 33:4.

CHAPTER 8 ABOUT JUDGMENT DAY

Concerning Judgment Day, Jesus said

"The Judgment day of God will be so dreadful that, verily I say unto you, the reprobates would sooner choose ten hells than go to hear God speak in wrath against them. Against whom all things created will witness. Verily I say unto you, that not alone shall the reprobates fear, but the saints and the elect of God, so that Abraham shall not trust in his righteousness, and Job shall have no confidence in his innocence. And what say I? Even the messenger of God shall fear, for that God, to make known his majesty, shall deprive his messenger of memory, so that he shall have no remembrance how that God hath given him all things. Verily I say unto you that, speaking from the heart, I tremble because by the world I shall be called God, and for this I shall have to render an account. As God liveth, in whose presence my soul standeth, I am a mortal man as other men are, for although God has placed me as prophet over the house of Israel for the health of the feeble and the correction of sinners, I am the servant of God, and of this ye are witness, how I speak against those wicked men who after my departure from the world shall annul the truth of my gospel by the operation of Satan. But I shall return towards the end, and with me shall come Enoch and Elijah, and we will testify against the wicked, whose end shall be accursed.'

And having thus spoken, Jesus shed tears, whereat his disciples wept aloud, and lifted their voices, saying: 'Pardon, O Lord God, and have mercy on thy innocent servant.' Jesus answered: 'Amen, Amen.'" – GB: 52.

SIGNS BEFORE JUDGMENT

"For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places." – Matt. 24:7.

"For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect." – Matt. 24:24.

"Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:" – Matt. 24:32.

"So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors." – Matt. 24:33.

"Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled." – Matt. 24:34.

CHAPTER 9 ABOUT THE HEREAFTER

As it has been mentioned there are three possible destinations for the souls of mankind (also for spirit beings) when life departs the body. In this section those three destinations are described.

More about how these three destinations for the souls of mankind are achieved, is revealed in chapter 4: THE TRUE WORSHIP OF GOD, under the heading: Methods.

ABOUT HEAVEN

The elect and the righteous ones, who have followed God's Laws and commandments, will be given a place of rest, because their work has been acceptable unto God, amidst all of their trials and tribulations in this life. Describing Heaven, Jesus says:

"The angels will bring my elect and righteous which are perfect in all righteousness, and shall bear them in their hands and clothe them with the garments of eternal life. They shall see their desire in those who hated them, when he punishes them. Torment for every one is forever according to his deeds. And all those who are in torment will say with one voice: 'Have mercy upon us, for now we know the judgment of God, which he declared to us beforehand, and we did not believe.' And the angel Tatiros will come and chasten them with even greater torment and will say unto them: 'Now do ye repent when there is no more time for repentance, and nothing of life remains.' And all shall say: 'Righteous is the Judgment of God: for we have heard and perceived that his judgment is good, since we are punished according to our deeds.'" – TCJ: IX: 122-U.

"Then will I give to my elect and righteous the baptism and the salvation for which they have besought me, in the field Akrosja which is called Aneslasleja. They shall adorn with flowers the portion of the righteous and I will go ... I will rejoice with them. I will cause the nations to enter into my eternal kingdom and show to them that eternal thing to which I have directed their hope, I and my heavenly Father. I have spoken it to thee, Peter, and make it known to thee. Go forth then and journey to the city in the west in the vineyard which I will tell thee of ... by the hand of my Son who is without sin, that his work ... of destruction may be sanctified. But thou art chosen in the hope which I have given to thee." – TCJ: IX: 123-U.

"'In the coming age', says the Lord: 'they will neither marry nor be given in marriage, but will be as the angels in heaven.'" – TCJ: IX: 126-X.

BODY AND SOUL IN PARADISE

"...Jesus answered: 'Now what blessedness shall the body have if it eat not nor drink? Assuredly it is fitting to give glory in proportion to the thing glorified. But thou errest, Peter, in thinking that such meat should be voided in uncleanness, because this body at the present time eateth corruptible meats, and thus it is that putrefaction cometh forth; but in paradise the body shall be incorruptible, impassible, and immortal, and free from every misery; and the meats, which are without any defect, shall not generate any putrefaction.'" – GB: 174.

"God saith thus in Isaiah the prophet, pouring contempt on the reprobate: 'My servants shall sit at my table in mine house and shall feast joyfully, with gladness and with the sound of harps and organs, and I will not suffer them to have need of anything. But ye that are mine enemies shall be cast away from me, where ye shall die in misery, while every servant of mine despiseth you.'" – GB: 175.

ABOUT HELL

Jesus said: "Every one, be he who he may, must go into hell. It is true, however, that the holy ones and prophets of God shall go there to behold, not suffering any punishment; and the righteous, only suffering fear. And what shall I say? I tell you that thither shall come (even) the messenger of God, to behold the justice of God. Thereupon hell shall tremble at his presence. And because he hath human flesh, all those that have human flesh and shall be under punishment, so long as the messenger of God shall abide to behold hell, so long shall they abide without punishment. But he shall abide there (only) so long as it taketh to shut and open the eyes.

And this shall God do in order that every creature may know that he hath received benefit from the messenger of God." – GB: 136.

Those who have rejected God and His Law will remain in, the fires of Hell. Describing Hell, Jesus said:

“Hell is one, O my disciples, and in it the damned shall suffer punishment eternally. Yet hath it seven rooms or regions, one deeper than the other, and he who goeth to the deepest shall suffer greater punishment. Yet are my words true concerning the sword of the angel Michael, for he that committeth but one sin meriteth hell, and he that committeth two sins meriteth two hells. Therefore in one hell shall the reprobates feel punishment as though they were in ten, or in a hundred or in a thousand, and the omnipotent God, through his power and by reason of his justice, shall cause Satan to suffer as though he were in ten hundred thousand hells, and the rest each one according to his wickedness.” – GB: 59.

“... Then said Jesus: ‘Now this is a delight (in comparison) of hell. For I tell you in truth, that if God should place in one balance all the pain which all men have suffered in this world and shall suffer till the day of Judgment, and in the other one single hour of the pain of hell, the reprobates would without doubt choose the worldly tribulations, for the worldly come from the hand of man, but the others from the hand of devils, who are utterly without compassion. O what cruel fire they shall give to miserable sinners! O what bitter cold, which yet shall not temper their flames! What gnashing of teeth and sobbing and weeping! For the Jordan has less water than the tears which every moment shall flow from their eyes. And here their tongues shall curse all things created, with their father and mother, and their Creator, who is blessed for ever.’” – GB: 60.

“‘Know ye, therefore, that hell is one, yet hath seven centers one below another. Hence, even as sin is of seven kinds, for as seven gates of hell hath Satan generated it: so are there seven punishments therein.

‘For the proud, that is the loftiest in heart, shall be plunged into the lowest centre, passing through all the centers above it, and suffering in them all the pains that are therein. And as here he seeketh to be higher than God, in wishing to do after his own manner, contrary to that which God commandeth, and not wishing to recognize anyone above him: even so there shall he be put under the feet of Satan and his devils, who shall trample him down as the grapes are trampled when wine is made, and he shall be ever derided and scorned of devils.

...‘In this accursed place shall there be a general punishment, common to all the centers, like the mixture of various grains to make a loaf. For fire, ice, thunderstorms, lightning, sulphur, heat, cold, wind, frenzy, terror, shall all be united by the justice of God, and in such wise that the cold shall not temper the heat nor the fire the ice, but each shall give torment to the wretched sinner.’” – GB: 135.

For additional information and a complete Contents listing for this Guide Book: ONE GOD ONE WORD: The TRUTH about the KNOWLEDGE and WORSHIP of GOD, Visit Website:

<http://www.onegodoneword.com/>.

Customer Reviews

One God One Word, December 05 2004

I found the content and context of "One God One Word" to be quite phenomenal. I've never read a compilation of the different religious beliefs so well put together into one book - where one could study with a sense of ease as well as gain an understanding of it all.

This book is a tool that provides a knowledge and perspective that we all can use in whatever walk we're in. The truth is evident in "One God One Word" as it demonstrates so many useful messages and captures all aspects of ONE GOD.

I have truly been enlightened by my reading and appreciate the insight that this book offers. It's also evident that a lot of time and research was put into this book in order to have created such a dynamic product. I thank God for this book!